Kami Ocean & The Rhythm

2 SHOWS AUG 9 / 8:00 PM & 10:15 PM

$5
COVER

Kami Turner is a seasoned singer with a gift for delivering great vocal performance. In 2010, she had the distinct honor of singing live on the Grand Ole Opry stage in Nashville, Tennessee for the nationally televised Stellar Awards. Another layer of Kami's talent includes her work as a studio vocalist. In 2005, she added her vocals to the compilation album for NBC's reality TV show, Nashville Star and recorded demos for Grammy-winning artists.

Today Kami lives with her husband, Chad, in Greenville, South Carolina where she entertains for corporate and private events, parties and weddings. Her sultry tones, R&B sounds and smooth jazzy voice along with Chad's amazing talent on the keys are sure to get you on your feet for a great night of fun!

Shannon Hoover

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8 / 8:00 PM & 10:15 PM

Shannon Hoover, from Greenville SC, plays electric and acoustic bass, piano, and brass. He graduated from Anderson University (SC) in 2004 with a B.A. in Double Bass Performance. He is a freelance performer, composer, private instructor, and the adjunct bass instructor at University of South Carolina-Upstate in Spartanburg, SC. He plays many styles, focusing on jazz, classical, and world music, also keeping a busy performance schedule.

Matt Kay

5 SHOWS | AUGUST 8, 9, 26, 27, & 31

Matthew Kay was born in Greenville, SC and raised in Easley, SC. In school, he developed a talent for literature, winning awards and being featured in the school literary magazines. After performing with the South Carolina Children's theater, he developed a love of dramatic art, performing at Greenville Little Theater and Easley Foothills Playhouse. After hearing Led Zeppelin III, he decided he had to play the guitar, teaching himself and practicing up to 20 hours a day.
