COVER

Jen St. Stjärna is a Chicago native who was schooled in jazz by sneaking into the city's piano bars as a teenager. Today, she is not the kid on the sly, she's the performer. Playing songs made famous by Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, and Frank Sinatra, she focuses on the vocal jazz standards of the golden era. You will kick back, relax, and be transported to another time. The music affects people of all age groups and backgrounds as her smoky but fluid voice tells the stories that only jazz can tell.

"St. Stjärna's voice has the sweet, softness of Norah Jones or Lena Horne, a slight hint of the smoky voice of Peggy Lee and the soulful strength of Bessie Smith."

-Leena Dbouk - Spartanburg Herald-Journal
